MASON TO BE DEPUTY

In the Office of Recorder McFarland, of Belmont County.

It is now out that O. P. Mason, of Bellaire, will go into the county recorder's office as a deputy, after the first of January. John K. McFarland, the recorder, who has three years to serve, has made him a tender of that place, and it is understood that he will take it. Whether two deputies will be kept in the office is not known, but it would hardly seem probable. McFarland's brother-in-law, Bud Taylor's son, is now in the office, and J. A. Fish has been helping out for a month or two.

A New Detective.

On the Bellaire street car division is a motorman who for detective powers, cannot be beat. Last Thursday, while A. M. Dunfee was running his car from Bellaire to Bridgeport, he noticed a man on the car whom he thought to be one of the men implicated in the robbery of the jewelry store at Bellaire earlier in the week. When he arrived at the barns at West Wheeling, he telephoned to the police at Bridgeport to watch for his car and arrest the man when he arrived at that point. The police accordingly did so, and after they had taken him to the city bastille, discovered that he was one of the peaceful residents of the island, and immediately turned him loose. The remaining employees of the line are having a good deal of fun at Dunfee's expense and have advised him to quit the street car business and apply for a position with Pinkerton.

Levied on the Property.

Sheriff Foreman was in Bellaire Saturday, serving the papers in the Monaghan partition case. The evening before he levied on the real property of the Standard Oil & Bridge works. It seems this execution was issued because only the personal property of a receiver, and the levy was made under the real estate, machinery, etc. The sale cannot be made until some time in January. The property levied upon was appraised at $4,000. The validity of the levy may be contested, but on what grounds we do not know.

They Are Fortunate.

John Mullen and Anthony Lyden, of Bellaire, were fined and sentenced to jail for obstructing the Baltimore & Ohio railroad on a plea of guilty for that offense. These are the boys who had been on the track and leaving a keg that caused the derailling of a car and the loss of Conductor Pennington's life. There was no intent to harm either property or person, but under the law they would probably have been found guilty of manslaughter, so that they are fortunate in escaping as they did.

Blanco Fined.

William Blanco, of Martin's Ferry, who was on trial at St. Clairsville last week was fined $50 and costs and twenty days' imprisonment by Judge Hollingsworth Saturday, for assault and battery. He was indicted on the charge of making and selling beer, and he has been convicted. He would have gone to the penitentiary. His friends are very glad he got off as easily as he did.

A scumboat coming up the river was disabled by the wind and pulled to shore for safety and collided with the house boat, sinking it immediately. All the furniture in the boat was saved.

Both Were Fined.

Henry Bode, Sr., and Henry Bode, Jr., who run a saloon at Burlington, went to St. Clairsville Saturday, where they pleaded guilty to thirteen indictments for illegal liquor selling. Judge Hollingsworth fined the former $120 and fifteen days' imprisonment and the latter was given $110 and twenty days' imprisonment.

LOCAL ENTHUSIASM.

On One Subject Wheeling People Grow Enthusiastic.

The increase of popular enthusiasm on the following subject is almost daily manifested by public expression and local endorsement. Read what this citizen says and discover the cause of the constant showering of praises which follows in the wake of Dean's Kidney Pills. Mrs. Edward Kurtz, of No. 220 Main street, says:

"I was so crippled at the time I got Dean's Kidney Pills at the Logan Drug Company's, that I could scarcely get around, and they took all the aches and pains away. I tried many things at different times. Some one recommended juniper berries and I took ten made from them for a whole month, but it did me no good. Dean's Kidney Pills were a great find to me, and I can honestly recommend them to others, knowing that they will do everything that is claimed for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Cold Steel or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. L. B. Hunt, of Lane Pledge, Wis., by her doctor, after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvellous power of Electric Bitters to cure Stomach and Liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c at Logan Drug Company's drug store—1.

Announcement.

Price, including the spraying tube, is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions, but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 66 Warren Street, N. Y.

AMUSEMENTS.

The "Sherlock Holmes" in Mr. Gillette's play is really an improvement on the character as made famous by Conan Doyle. The stage character has more audacity, humor, eccentricity and alertness of mind, that is, they are more in evidence in the play, which is an original treatment along melodramatic lines of a group of Doyle's clever stories. Gillette never loses sight of the original preposterousness of Doyle's ideal detective and injects a gleam of humor into the grim situations in which he is so often placed. Holmes is a desperate fellow but a keen and practical one. He is at times heart weary and sighs for rest. He is also in the play a lover, but he is first of all and always, in the clutches of the "spider of crime," in the terrible gas chamber at Stepeny, with death at his very elbow, in every posture and predicament, a humorist. Therefore he is the most acceptable and delightful of all the detectives of theatrical history. The result is, that Gillette's play fascinates while it amuses. Thrills come and go, relieved by grateful laughter. "Sherlock Holmes" is the Opera House offering for Tuesday evening, December 11.

"Poverty Row."

John F. Leonard will be seen in his new comedy drama, "Poverty Row," at the Grand Opera House for three nights commencing next Monday night, December 10th. The play is said to be mounted with a full equipment of clever comedians. Playgoers will remember Mr. Leonard as, some seasons ago, Michael Hogan, in Hogan's Alley. Make King is with "Poverty Row," and, in a scene depicting the revels at a palm garden, will do an act of dancing which is said to have no equal. Many of Mr. Leonard's own compositions will be sung during the action of the drama and a budget of uproarious fun will make "Poverty Row" as merry as was Hogan's Alley.

"The Evil Eye."

At the Opera House Wednesday evening, December 12th, Charles H. Yale's great scenic spectacle "The Evil Eye," will be seen in all of its pristine glory, together with several new features which have been added for this season. The company numbers fifty people and is exceptionally strong in its vocalists. Among the well known performers are Miss Mayme Mayo, Miss Lora Lieb, Gus Bruno, Artie Horant and Tommy Elliot, Charles Flynn, John Guilmette, the Phassey Thous, with the electric ballet, the disappearing rooms, the revolving wind-mill, and other special features which will be put on in Mr. Yale's best style, and a splendid performance is promised.

"The Girl From Maxim's."

The big French farce comedy success, "The Girl From Maxim's," is to be presented at the Opera House, on Tuesday evening, December 14, for the first time in Wheeling. The mere announcement of its coming will be sufficient to create a big demand for seats. Much has been heard of this gay young creature who has a reputation of making things extremely lively. If all reports are true concerning this play then an evening of laughter such as you are seldom afforded await you. The company that will present the company here is the big one. The complete scenic production from the Criterion Theatre, New York, where the play had its first presentation in this country will be used here. It is said that those witnessing this performance will declare that they have been wonderfully entertained.
